“Vision:

The Trust’s vision is that all carers are

- Recognised
- Valued
- And have access to the appropriate support.

Mission:

The Trust’s mission is to make a positive difference to the lives of carers. We do this in partnership with the Network of Princess Royal Trust Carers’ Centres, statutory and voluntary organisations and by acting independently in the interest of family or unpaid carers throughout the UK.

CARERS SCOTLAND

Carers Scotland is part of Carers UK (formerly Carers National Association). It is an organisation of carers and provides:

Information - research - advocacy - policy development
Campaigning - training for social care and health professionals

Carers UK operate CarersLine (0808 808 7777), the UK-wide free phone helpline for carers.

Carers Scotland also hosts the Scottish Carers Alliance, a network of Scottish voluntary carer, disability and children’s organisation with an interest in carers issues.

Carers Scotland has offices based in Glasgow. The work of the organisation is overseen by the Carers Scotland Committee, elected by the Scottish membership.

For further information on any of Carers Scotland’s services or to become a member please contact the organisation.
